AUTO ACCIDENT FATAL TO KENYON ALUMNUS

John S. Braddock, Jr., '00, Dies
At Little Rock, Ark., From Brain Concussion

John S. Braddock, Jr., Kenyon, '00, was fatally injured on March 4, 1920, when his car collided with a street car in his home city of Little Rock, Arkansas. He was secretary of the Bardock Land and Granite Company of that city. Directly after the accident, physicians expressed little hope of his recovery inasmuch as he received a fracture over the right eye and also suffered concussion of the brain.

He was born at Mount Vernon, Ohio, June 17, 1879. His prep school training was received at Siglar Preparatory School, Newburgh, N. Y., and then entered Kenyon with the class of '00.

He served with Fourth Ohio Volunteers throughout the Spanish War and was married June 7, 1901, to Miss Katherine McCoy of Grand Rapids, Mich. He is survived by his wife, one daughter and two sons. Since 1904 he has been engaged in the real estate business in Little Rock; was a member of the Little Rock Country Club. The Real Estate Bureau of the local board of commerce and also a member of Delta Kappa Epsilon.

Funeral services were held from his late residence on Monday, March 8, the Rev. John Boden, rector of Christ Church officiating.

STANTON CIVICS CLUB TO OUTLINE "CONVENTION"

Anticipatory of a mock Democratic convention to nominate a candidate for the presidency, the Edwin M. Stanton Civics club was reorganized in Philo hall, Monday evening, March 8 and the following officers were elected: president, K. M. Harper; vice-president, L. C. Kilgore; secretary-treasurer, J. F. Arndt.

Dr. R. D. Cahall opened the meeting with an informal explanation of the functions of such a club and a recital of the mock convention held four years ago. He then spoke concerning his views as to a good program for the members of the club to adhere to, and closed by outlining some of the events preceding a nominating campaign and by telling in an interesting manner how Marcus A. Hanna, a "patron saint" of Kenyon, made it possible for William McKinley to be nominated and elected.

SOPHOMORE HOP TO OUTSHINE ALL OTHERS

Men Of '22 Class Are Busy Preparing For May Event Of Many New Features

Decorations To Receive Special Attention; Music Will Be of the Best

The Sophomore Hop, to be given by the class of 1922 on the evenings of May 14 and 15, promises to be the foremost event during the present season and also to surpass any dance ever given in Kenyon College. The dance given last year by the class of 21 realized all of the hopes of every Kenyon man who attended it, in that it was a very wonderful affair and filled a very good bill—but the class of 22 is bound heart and soul to produce a more than ideal Hop, one that will always remain in the hearts of those attending as being the best yet.

It is the intention of the class to put on this dance in the best possible style and to charge only enough to make expenses. There is very little doubt but that it will be the most expensive dance staged here for a long time—at the same time the results will fully justify the expenditures.

The weather conditions during Hop are as a rule ideal, the dance coming at a time when Spring is at the height of its glory and the College campus more beautiful than at any other time of the year. One of the dominating features will be the wonderful, moonlight nights, which everyone will agree, add very much to the splendor of the dance. Gambier will also be very accessible because of the fine condition of the roads, permitting the use of automobiles.

The events taking place during the week-end are more inviting and sensible than any given at any other time. On Friday evening, the formal dance will take place, followed by the usual morning dance at the Bakery. The next afternoon, a baseball game between Kenyon and Denison or Otterbein will furnish amusement to many lovers of the national sport, and this feature alone should attract many visitors, because this is Kenyon's first year in baseball for some time. In the evening, the Musical Comedy Section of the Puff and Powder Club will present J. M. Wade as leading man, and Phil Hummel as leading lady in

No doubt our readers have lost not a little patience with us for the disgraceful tardiness of these last two issues. We are sorry and as for our patience—it disappeared completely long before Christmas.

The firm which printed the Collegian, previous to this issue seemed to have a corner on the labor-trouble market, at least in Mt. Vernon and the influenza epidemic also got in a few mean strokes.

Circumstances combined to make the last issue about a month late and as we write this we hate to think of how late this may be as we haven't even got a printer for it yet!

SENIOR PROM IS BIG SUCCESS

A Joyous Jovial Jazzy
Party From Monday
To Thursday

About eighty couples enjoyed one of the most successful social functions of the year, when the Senior Class gave the Annual Promenade on Tuesday evening, the tenth of February.

Rosse Hall was artistically decorated with the class colors, the ceiling and walls being completely covered with a net-work of red and white.

The dance started at nine o'clock when Howard's Orchestra of Columbus played the opening dance. Seldom has any dance at Kenyon enjoyed better music. Punch and light refreshments were served thruout the course of the evening.

Patronesses were Mesdames Smythe, Reaves, Walton, Manning, Streibert and Miss Watson.

At three o'clock in the morning the guests retired to Stoyles where dancing ensued until breakfast was served at seven.

The rare combination of good weather, excellent music, and a congenial crowd made the Promenade a brilliant success and duly rewarded the members of the Senior Committee who had worked tirelessly during the preceding week in preparation. Messrs. Berkey, Biggs, Brain, Downe, Galberach, Graves, Gregg, Harper, Sant, Walton and Wells composed this committee. A partial list of the guests follows:

Miss Marian Simpson, Chicago, Ill.
Miss Margaret Stevenson, Pittsburgh, Pa.

Miss Doris Brown, Toledo, Ohio.
Miss Betty Schenck, Toledo, Ohio.
Miss Beatrice Sherwood, Lima, Ohio.
Miss Margaret Abrams, Lima, Ohio.
Miss Margaret Shafer, Dayton, Ohio.
Miss Harriet Shafer, Dayton, Ohio.
Miss Virginia Hall, Akron, Ohio.
Miss Helen Wade, Akron, Ohio.
Miss Gertrude Campbell, Akron, O.
Miss Dorothy Mathews, Salem, Ohio.
Miss Margaret Derr, Wooster, Ohio.
Miss Dorothy Meldrum, Cleveland, Ohio.

Miss Edna Gorsuch, Mt. Vernon, O.
Miss Susan Parsons, Mt. Vernon, O.
Miss Dorothy Haynes, Sandusky, O.
Miss Mary Graefe, Sandusky, Ohio.
Miss Jane Davis, Youngstown, Ohio.
Miss Margaret Lea, Columbus, Ohio.
Miss Eloise Kimball, Harcourt.

PROM SEASON OPENS WITH PERFORMANCE OF TARKINGTON PLAY

Puff And Powder Club Presents "The Man From Home" On Monday Night of "Prom Week"

The Senior Prom activities were ushered in this season with the performance of "The Man From Home" by Booth Tarkington and Harry Leon Wilson; the Puff and Powder Club were the perpetrators thereof and it received the verdict of having put on one of the best performances in its history upon this occasion. It was the first performance of a full-sized legitimate play since "What Happened to Jones" was produced in 1915.

This rather ambitious step was taken by the Club for the purpose of providing a suitable "curtain raiser" for the Prom season and also to put the organization squarely on its feet as a student activity. The war had played particular havoc with conditions in this Club as it had in all of the student organizations and this performance was intended to put the Club once more on a "peace-basis."

The piece deals with the machinations of a set of titled European fortune hunters towards separating a young American girl from her inheritance; a Russian political fugitive and a Grand Duke are drawn into the plot and the whole action is considerably altered by one Daniel Voorhees Pike, a middle-aged Indiana lawyer and guardian of the girl. Of course everything ends very happily, the villain is very properly foiled and the girl returns to Indiana with the Man from Home.

While the parts were all very well portrayed, there are several which call for special attention. The work of J. M. Wade, '22, as the young English lord was very finished in its character, his voice and gestures and general stage presence being excellent. I. Curtis Brewer, '21, as Lord Hawcastle, was also very good; as were W. Gehri, '21, and P. T. Hummel, '23, in their respective parts of the inn-keeper and Ethel Granger Simpson, the American girl.

The entire cast put a good deal of time and work into the play itself as well as the setting of it and rehearsals of from one to three hours duration were daily occurrences for a period of four weeks before the performance. This continued through examination week and directly up to the night of the play and a great deal of credit is due to the members of the cast for their support and enthusiasm in making the play a success; also thanks to Dr. Reeves for his helpful criticism and assistance in general.

The cast follows:

HENRY H. DENISON '57 PASSES AWAY

Was a Lawyer of Marked Ability and Grand-nephew of Philander Chase

A Devoted Churchman and a Member of Several Historical and Patriotic Societies

Henry Heber Denison, a member of Christ Church Cathedral) died Dec. 24th.

Mr. Denison was the son of Reverend George and Janet D. Denison. He was born at Lockport, N. Y., October 28, 1837; graduated in 1857 from Kenyon College, which was founded by his great uncle, Bishop Philander Chase; taught languages in St. Paul's College, Palmyra, Mo.; studied law in Vermont and was admitted to the bar in that state. He went into the Civil War as private in the 8th Vermont Infantry, but was always on detached service in the Quartermaster's Department. After the war he returned to the practice of law in Vermont, and served two terms in the State Legislature. In 1870 he moved to St. Louis, where he continued the practice of his profession.

He was a lawyer of marked ability and his decisions as Master in Chancery in certain cases involving damages for infringement of patents and trade-marks established a principle for assessing damages which was upheld by the United States Supreme Court and brought him national fame.

He was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic, Sons of the Revolution, Sons of Colonial Wars, and was elected an honorary member of the Missouri Historical Society because he found among some old papers in the Court House the original petition for incorporation of the City of St. Louis, which has been framed and hung in the Jefferson Memorial.

For many years he was a Vestryman and Senior Warden of Mt. Calvary Church; for several years he served as a member of the Standing Committee of the Diocese; for six years was Secretary of the Diocese, and during that time attended as a delegate two General Conventions; a member of the Committees on Aged and Infirm Clergy Fund and the Theological Education Fund.

He was a courteous, Christian gentleman, and his home life was ideal. He is survived by his wife, two sons (Dudley C. and Major Walcott Denison, Medical Corps, U. S. A.), a daughter, Grace M., and a sister.

J. J. Chester, '19, spent several days on the Hill recently.

Robert M. Pears, '22, is with the Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Edward Seese, '17, of The Great Northern Life Insurance Co., Grand Forks, N. D., was recently married.

"Certainly Cynthia," a complete three-act musical comedy. The success of this should be assured if only judging from the review put on by the Kalamities. In addition to this, the cast will be very much enlarged and will consist of more theatrical talent. To cap the climax, the usual informal will take place after the show. With these events in view, every man in College should make it a point to count on this Hop with his heart and soul, and not only assure the Dance Committee of his presence, but also that of one of the fair sex.

If the tentative plans now being made, are carried out, the dance will have some wonderful attractions. In the first place, the decorations will be complete in every detail and Rosse Hall will make its most attractive appearance. The plans now include several cozy corners, a card room, suitable dressing rooms for both men and ladies and a tastefully decorated balcony for refreshments. The refreshments will be served by a capable cateress and the best food will be given to all the guests. The best orchestra in the state will be obtained and it is a question as to whether it will be Tom Howard or another known quantity. Whoever plays, it is a fact that he will be just as good as Howard and perhaps just a little better. The programme of music played by Tom Howard at the last Prom should be sufficient proof that nothing better could be wanted, unless extraordinary, and that the music in May will be wonderful. The programmes will be made of excellent leather and will greatly resemble those of the class of 1918.

In conclusion, it is only fair to say, that it is the duty of every man in College to boost this dance, to be there in person and to bring as many guests as possible. The dance is put on by the Sophomore Class, but it is directly for the benefit of Kenyon College, and for that reason every man should strive for its success. Whatever is the outcome of the dance, that factor is in the hands of the student body, and the result will be viewed by the outside world. It is a foregone conclusion, that the man who misses this dance, will miss one of the greatest things in his college career, and will always regret it. So! everyone's motto should be: "Boost the Sophomore Hop of 1920."

PROVINCIALISM

Much has been written concerning the respective merits of small and large academic institutions. As Kenyon students we naturally adhere to the opinion that the advantage lies with the smaller college. At least we feel that development is more swift and sure and the college life more intimate and sincere than in a metropolitan university. Many Kenyon men chose their college with a firm belief that the ideal in education is at once discovered and attained in a small college. To what extent is this correct?

A graduate of a very large university in commenting on what he called "preposterous assumption of superiority in merit on the part of the lesser institutions" recently remarked in caustic fashion:

"I see nothing but provincialism, pettiness and bucolic conceit arising from a small college education. You come out in a mold like peas in a pod and the mold is of the ordinary average. Individualism cannot exist; criticism is rife; intolerance persists as in the age of the Inquisition. In the end you sink or rise to the common level, gain a fair classical education, an excellent, narrow view-point in life, and a pride in your college and principally yourself, because you are doing the identical things that the other ninety-nine men are doing. With what pride you insist on the compliance of the freshmen in the straight and narrow path! You call it getting the "right spirit" of Squeedunk University. Oh that intolerance! How can you live through it? The ridicule and gossip which must inevitably exist as in a small town would drive me to despondence. It is the big universities which produce the great individuals with original ideas and startling discoveries. There true democracy holds sway together with tolerance, the real jewel of all learning, and education does not sink down into the mire of mediocrity and pettiness."

Of course we don't believe what he says precisely, yet it makes us stop and consider. At least we ought to marshal our arguments in order that we may intelligently and calmly deny those unheard-of accusations. The more one considers, the calmer one becomes. In the end most men of at least ordinary mental calibre will agree that while our university friend has overpraised the university and underpraised the college, yet he has hit upon a kernel of truth. We believe as before that Kenyon College is the ideal place to be educated, but one really ought to reform once in awhile, you know. Perhaps then Kenyon men won't talk of entering a larger institution.

In our pride for our college we should strive to combine the advantages of the small college with progress and individualism and broadness. Too often we hear constant harping and knocking like we were little gods divinely correct upon our two by four thrones and only too glad to detect individualisms in others, which we attribute to misguided, perverted and lunatic tendencies. Perhaps all the while we are guilty of actions which are far more ludicrous and far less logical. True the extreme type of sneering small souls of ordinary mentality is rare at Kenyon College yet we should be on the lookout to squelch such aliens. After all this is 1920, not 1492.

COURTESY TO VISITORS

Just what does "proper" treatment of visiting athletic teams mean to Kenyon? It means that these teams will go back to their respective colleges with a big boost for Kenyon. It means honor, prestige, and popularity for our Alma Mater. In the past Kenyon has always had a reputation of being square, courteous, and gentlemanly to visiting teams. Did the treatment which we gave Akron University come up to these standards? Most emphatically NO! The hissing, jeering, and guying made us think we were in any other place but Kenyon. We do not mean that this has been the case all year, but it was the case in the Akron game.

Many take advantage of the fact that we have a whole college against about ten opponents. Perhaps if the conditions were reversed these men would not be so brave. For the honor of Kenyon let us not have this happen again as we owe courtesy to our visitors who are in reality our guests and should be treated as such.

THE ASSEMBLY

There is something radically wrong with the student body of Kenyon College in regard to attendance at the Assembly meetings. At the regular March meeting there was not more than one-third of the student body present. This state of affairs must be due to one of two reasons: either the older men have not impressed on the first and second year men the necessity of attending every Assembly meeting—whether it be regular or special; or else the students do not realize the great importance of being present at every meeting where matters of vital interest to everyone are brought up and discussed.

True, the Freshmen and Sophomores are not allowed to voice their opinions before the Assembly, but nevertheless their votes lend strength and authority to the decisions reached by the Assembly. For this reason the students, irrespective of class, should not abuse this voting privilege by irregular attendance at the meetings. It is a fact that there are just as many absences, in proportion to their number, among the upper classmen as among the Freshmen and Sophomores. So it is evident that the poor attendance can be explained only by a general lack of interest.

Now let's get together, men!! Come out of your shells and let's have ONE HUNDRED per cent attendance for the remainder of this year. Take an active interest in, and consider yourself, part of, your governing body—the Kenyon College Assembly.

After a long absence baseball will be ushered in this spring. As this is the first team in a number of years, the program will not be extensive, but it will enable us to get a start.

Galberach is the only letter man in college, but there is a wealth of material at hand. Treat, Sidnell, Sant, MacAdie, Hall, Kelley and Gregg are the men counted on to make a successful season. Manager Harper has already scheduled Reserve at Cleveland. The schedule will be arranged so as not to interfere with the track season.

Track prospects are just fair. Galberach will be practically the whole team. Goldy should do big things this year as he is an old man at the game and knows it well. Maxwell can be counted on to win some points in the jumps and dashes. Pflum will be a good man in the quarter. Arndt and Brewer will be used to a good advantage in the dashes and broad jump. Chew and Norton did good work with the javelin last year. In the weights and pole vault the material is very scarce.

Let us see more interest in track this year. When the call for candidates comes, we should have at least twenty-five men out. Meets have been arranged with Wooster, Heidelberg and Otterbein, and this should be a good incentive for the men to support the track team.

A COMMONS ORCHESTRA

The writer has been thinking for some time of a plan by which Sunday dinner at the Commons could be made more enjoyable. Why not have music with our most important Sunday meal? We have a great little orchestra here in college and there is no reason why it could not be utilized for a good purpose. In almost every school in the country where the Commons system is in vogue there is music with the meals. Even in some of the prep schools they have this distinctive feature.

The commons piano could be moved upstairs as it does little good where it is now, and with the talent we have, a little more refinement would be added. Here is a chance for somebody with some initiative to add one more feature to Kenyon life. If the proposition would prove a success, it could be extended to every night in the week. Think it over, and if it sounds good—agitate it!

SCIENCE CLUB REVIVED IN MARCH; OFFICERS CHOSEN

Requirements For Admission Raised
Dr. Probst of Columbus,
Gives Talk

Like most other Kenyon activities, the Science Club suffered very near complete collapse during the War. At the beginning of this year there were but three undergraduate members in college, the constitution and all records had been lost and the Science Key was a thing of the past.

Dr. Johnson, realizing the value of a club of this nature, devoted to the development of Science and the study of past achievements, made inquiries among the undergraduates as to the sentiment towards reviving the Club. Names of men who were desirous of becoming members were solicited and twenty names were received.

At an informal meeting of the Faculty and Student members at the Commons, March 2, it was decided to rewrite the Constitution and raise the requirements for admission. Four new members were voted in, Arndt, Brewer, Schneider and Maire, who will come into full membership upon the preparation and reading of a paper based on some scientific subject.

Mr. Zollinger was elected Secretary and Treasurer for the current year. New members will be taken in as soon as they have obtained the required amount of Science credit.

The first meeting of the Club was held at Dr. Weida's house, Monday evening, March 8. Dr. Charles O. Probst, of Columbus, was the speaker, the subject of his lecture being, "The Relation Between Science and Medicine." Dr. Probst is a prominent physician of Columbus, is President of the State Board of Health and President of the State Tuberculosis Society.

Interlocutor — Howard Dingbat Fishack.

End Men—Motorman Davis, Dog Loufborrow, Monkey Mell, Rum Rodgers, Jelly Jerpe, Shore Abrams, Gloomy Miller, Goose Greaves.

These able Minstrels presented a jolly, jazzy musical program with the able assistance of the celebrated couple, "Wilber" Downe and "Force" Ryan.

The Glee Club presented the second part of the first scene; their rendition of the favorite Kenyon melodies was well received.

The second part of the evening's program was by far the better; J. M. Wade and L. M. Latta presented the "Kenyon Kalamities of 1920." The time and place of the Melange was at eleven p. m. in the kingdom of Gambevo, a scene in the Sahara Desert. Those in the cast were:

Jazzimova Mr. Wade
Johnnie Walker of the Canadian Club Mr. Ryan
Bevo Nerbeera Mr. Hummel
Ladies of the chorus: Messrs. Wright, VanArnam, Kilgore, Ward, Beggs, Williams, Lorenz, and Goodell.

Jazzimova was the rightful heir to the throne of Gambevo, which had been usurped by the present king, Pat Fierce. She tried to get Walker to plant a bomb in Pat's bedchamber and destroy him, thus leaving the throne to its rightful owner, Jazzimova. While she is flirting with Walker, the latter's fiancée appears on the scene and discovers them; a quarrel between the two lovers ensues. Suddenly a courier brings news that Pat Fierce has died; Jazzimova rejoices and the lovers are reunited.

One of the hits of this Melange was the song "Won't You Adopt a Pretty Baby Like Me," during which the ladies of the chorus promenaded among the audience, and made themselves particularly friendly with the surprised professors. This feature afforded those present, much amusement, and caused the wives of said professors to endure much embarrassment.

The customary reception of Dr. Peirce for the Freshmen was held in the latter part of January this year.

On account of the large number of men in the Freshman class, it was necessary to divide them in groups. Two or three divisions were invited at a time which made in all, three parties.

The Harcourt girls were invited and the evenings were enjoyed by dancing in the ballroom on the third floor.

A unique feature was the method employed by Mrs. Peirce in choosing partners for the first dance and the arrangement of the programs.

After the dancing refreshments were served downstairs.

Greater X-ray Service— through Research

FOR years after the discovery of X-rays it was evident that only intensive research could unfold their real possibilities.

Meanwhile, scientists of the General Electric Company developed the process of making wrought tungsten. This proved ideal as the target in X-ray tubes and its use for this purpose soon became universal.

Then further research resulted in the development of an X-ray tube of a radically new type—the Coolidge Tube—with both electrodes of wrought tungsten and containing the highest attainable vacuum.

But the complication of high-vacuum pumps made the new tube in large quantities impossible. The answer to this problem was the Langmuir Condensation Pump, utilizing mercury vapor in its operation and almost automatic.

To meet the need for simple X-ray apparatus during the war, the G-E Laboratory developed the Self-Rectifying Coolidge Tube, which made possible portable outfits at the front. The latest X-ray outfit of this type is so small it can be taken conveniently to the home or to the bedside in the hospital.

Thus the Research Laboratory of the General Electric Company continues to serve, that progress in things electrical may continue for the good of humanity.

MARCH ASSEMBLY IS BADLY ATTENDED; EX. COM. BROKE AGAIN

High Cost Of Athletics Causes A Disaster To Finances Of Ruling Body

CABLE PLAYS SOPHS

Discipline Becoming Very Lax; Actual Appearance of '23 Men
In Derby, Cited

The financial plight of the Executive committee formed the chief point of discussion at the poorly attended meeting of the March Assembly. President Sant dwelt at length upon the difficulties that faced this committee; incidentally he said that the February issue of the Collegian had been at the depot for several days with a considerable c. o. d. charge due on the same, and that they could not be delivered until the Executive committee acquired the necessary funds.

Mr. Brewer told the Assembly that but forty dollars of the Athletic Endowment Fund had been paid. He asked the men to pay up, and suggested that a committee be appointed to receive these payments. President Sant said that the personnel of this committee would be announced within the week.

A resolution submitted by Mr. Sidnell, calling for the distribution among the several divisions of copies of the constitution, was the next to pass the Assembly.

Mr. Kilgore then informed those present that because of the high cost of everything, the assessment for this year's Reveille would amount to three dollars. Mr. Brewer explained this assessment to the Freshmen, and asked the men to back this year's production.

Mr. Jones then tendered his resignation as cheer leader, which was immediately accepted; Mr. Ward was elected to succeed Mr. Jones. A vacancy on the Honor committee from the first constitutional division was reported to the Assembly, and Mr. Graves was placed upon this committee.

Mr. Mell spoke of the disappearance of two Varsity basketball jerseys, and asked the men involved to return the same at once.

Mr. Gehri reported the theft of money and jewelry from certain divisions during Prom week. He said that the circumstances under which the money was taken pointed directly to several of Gambier's younger generation. This prompted the Assembly to resolve that hereafter, the Gambier youngsters are to be gently but firmly ejected from the dormitories.

Mr. Sidnell remarked upon Kenyon's courtesy to visiting teams; he urged that we leave no stone unturned in our efforts to make the visitors feel welcome and at home.

Dr. Lockert's report on the recent contest of the Ohio Intercollegiate Oratorical Association was then submitted by Mr. Howarth; the report proved favorable, and the Assembly thereupon empowered Dr. Lockert, in the name of the college, to petition this body for membership.

Mr. Cable then showered the Sophomores with remarks concerning the recent laxity in the disciplining of the Freshmen. He mentioned, as an example, the fact that one neophyte had been so bold as to promenade down the path under a derby.

Mr. Sidnell proposed an amendment to the constitution whereby the maximum program charge for any college dance be set at five dollars. President Sant referred the motion to the secretary, and explained that by a ruling of the Assembly, this amendment could not be voted upon till the next session of that body.

The meeting closed with a few remarks from President Sant.

Members of the 1919 Varsity eleven were agreeably surprised, when, at the February session of the Assembly, Dr. Walton presented them with football K's. Letters were awarded Messrs. Galberach, Berkey, Cable, Maxwell, Treat, Carabelli, Chew, Eggert, Hall, Norton, Thomas, Wilkin, and Wiseman.

As a reward for faithful service on the squad, Mr. Brown received a letter, and Mr. Arndt was awarded class numerals; a manager's K was presented to manager Sant.

The disposal of the piano in Rosse Hall next occupied the attention of the Assembly. Mr. Mell, speaking for South Hanna, said that the piano was the property of that division, and that it was for sale. He stated that unless the Assembly cared to buy this piano, the owners would remove it, and offer it for sale elsewhere. The Assembly carefully considered the purchase of this piano, but decided to reject the offer for the time being.

President Sant urged the men to support the minstrel show, and incidentally reminded them that the Senior class would apply the proceeds towards erasing their enormous debt.

Mr. Cable asked that the men cheer the basketball teams as they emerged from their respective dressing rooms. He said that if Kenyon spirit was lacking at any one point, this was it.

The Assembly unanimously voted to send a letter of sympathy to the family of James H. McMurray, late member of the class of '20.

Mr. Sidnell again asked the men to take more interest in the singing at the Commons.

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Madeline Stillwell of Mt. Vernon to Richard W. Maxwell, '18. The ceremony took place September 25, 1919, at Newport, Ky.

CIVIL WAR VETERAN IS TAKEN BY DEATH

George E. Farrington, '63, Passes
Away, Served Three Years
In Civil War

George E. Farrington, Kenyon, 1863, died at his home in Terre Haute, Indiana on Saturday, February 7, 1920.

Mr. Farrington was born in Terre Haute on September 20, 1840. After completing the high school course he entered Kenyon with the class of '63. While he was still in college the Civil War broke out and he sacrificed his college career to go. In July of 1863 he enlisted as a private in Company C of the 85th Indiana infantry, served three years at the front and was discharged at the close of the war with the rank of Lieutenant.

When the war was over, Mr. Farrington became connected with the Vandalia Railroad as clerk to the secretary. Successive promotions followed in recognition of his capabilities and in 1875 he was made general agent, in which capacity he served for a number of years.

In 1869 Mr. Farrington married Miss Mary E. Turner and was the father of four children.

He was a stalwart supporter of the Republican party. He served as a councilman and was a prominent Mason of the country, having had the thirty-third degree conferred on him. He also belonged to the Indiana consistory, Scottish Rite, and to the Knights Templar.

Mr. Farrington was a vestryman of the St. Stephens Episcopal church and a few days before his death he was elected junior warden.

The funeral was held from St. Stephen's church Monday afternoon, February 9th.

The Rev. Chas. Edward Milnor, Matriculate of the Class of 1869, died at his residence, 110 South 38th St., Philadelphia, on Friday, February 13th, 1920.

Dr. Milnor, after leaving Kenyon College, graduated from the Philadelphia Divinity School and was ordained a priest in 1876. Before coming to Philadelphia he served parishes in Worcester, Md., Denton, Md., and Milford, Del. He first came to Philadelphia as Rector of St. Andrew's Church in 1882 and retired on account of infirmities in 1908.

Jazzimova wore a beautiful gown, and was crowned with a gorgeous headdress; she carried a large erise fan, which she indiscreetly used on the chins of the faculty.

This program was followed by informal dancing, lasting until about 2 a. m.

PHILA. ALUMNI HOLD ANNUAL MEETING AND ELECT NEW OFFICERS

Unanimously Approve Design of Memorial Tablet To Kenyon
Martyrs

The Annual Meeting and Dinner of the Kenyon Alumni Association of Philadelphia was held on Thursday evening, February 5, 1920, at the Meridian Club, corner of Chancellor and Camac Sts. with twelve Alumni present and five guests, including Dr. Peirce, President of the College.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

President W. W. Hearne, '83
Vice-President W. B. Bodine, '90
Secy. and Treas. M. F. Maury, '04

Dr. Peirce gave a very interesting talk to the alumni concerning conditions at the College and on the Hill, which was greatly appreciated by all present.

The following Alumni were present: Wm. T. Allen, Wm. B. Bodine, Jr., Fred J. Doolittle, Rev. H. S. Hathaway, Frank R. Jones, W. W. Leonard, M. F. Maury, A. D. Sapp, Wm. Tappan, Randall Anderson, Thos. E. Yerxa, and L. L. McCartney.

The guests were: Jas. Finch; Irving Hallawell; Mr. Hathaway's son; and Mr. Tillier, who expects to enter next fall.

The Rev. Mr. Hathaway, as retiring President, acted as Toastmaster of the occasion.

The design of the proposed memorial tablet to the men who had lost their lives in the Great War, was presented to the meeting and unanimously approved.

After listening to the informal talks of the Alumni members the meeting adjourned at 11 o'clock with "The Thrill" and a "Hika."

PROFESSOR WHITMAN ON "THOMAS AQUINAS"

Through the efforts of Dr. Cahall, the Kenyon Chapter of the Phi Beta Kappa Society extended, on February 26, the privilege of hearing Professor Whitman's paper on Thomas Aquinas, to the class in History 10.

The paper began with a history of the great theologian's life. He told how Thomas, born in 1227, early joined the Dominican order of friars in which he quickly gained ascendancy through his superior intellect. His early studies, combined with his insatiable craving for learning were influential for the success of a life most prolific in literature.

Thomas Aquinas, we are informed, The finished product of his labors the "Summa Theologia," comes down to the present day, unchanged in the Catholic theology.

... and at the Naval Academy, Annapolis

A fact:

At Annapolis, as with Navy Officers generally, Fatima is by far the largest-selling cigarette. This is true both at the Officers' Mess in the Academy and in the town itself, while among the midshipmen Fatima is especially popular.

Liggett & Myers Tobacco Co.

FATIMA

A Sensible Cigarette

"Just enough Turkish"

The fact that the Naval Cadets are picked men, representing every State in the Union, makes this one of Fatima's strongest endorsements.

Here at Annapolis as elsewhere, men have discovered that cigarette character depends on the right proportioning of Turkish tobacco.

So Fatima owes its popularity to the fact that it contains not too much nor too little, but just enough Turkish—just enough to taste right, always.
